

Lecture Notes

Target Language: Not available

Summary

The nation recognizes justice, liberty and equality as basic principles of a citizen's life and seeks to promote fraternity among them. All adult citizens have the to vote without any discrimination on any grounds making universal adult franchise a hallmark of a democratic system.

Key Points

- The nation recognizes justice, liberty and equality as basic principles of a citizen's life and seeks to promote fraternity among them.
- All adult citizens have the to vote without any discrimination on any grounds making universal adult franchise a hallmark of a democratic system.
- The preamble which commences with the magical words, we the people of India captures the lost East spirit of our constitution.
- India is a sovereign socialist secular democratic republic which assures the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the nation.
- It envisages that the legislature will represent and enact the will of the people while an independent judiciary will serve as the conscious keeper of the nation.
- The Assembly adopted the constitution of independent India on the 26th of November 1949 and it came into effect on the 26th of January 1951.
- It took the Constituent Assembly a little less than three years to draft this monumental document.
- Our constitution establishes India as a union of states with the parliamentary system of democracy.

Keywords

constitution [0.11], india [0.10], nation [0.07], adult [0.06], 26th [0.06], people [0.06], assembly [0.06], independent [0.06], democratic [0.06], country [0.05], earth [0.05], law [0.05], written [0.05], democracy [0.05], establishes [0.05]

Translation (Not available)

[illegible]

Constitution of India, which is the supreme law of the land, is the basic framework for the governance of the country. It defines the powers and responsibilities of the different branches of the government, namely the executive, the legislature, and the judiciary. The Constitution also guarantees the fundamental rights and freedoms of the citizens, such as the right to equality, the right to life and liberty, and the right to property. It is a living document that has evolved over time through amendments and judicial interpretations. The Constitution is the cornerstone of Indian democracy and is the source of all laws and regulations in the country.

Exam Questions

Fill in the Blanks

Q: The law is written _____ of any country on the earth.

A: constitution

Q: Our _____ establishes India as a union of states with the parliamentary system of democracy.

A: constitution

Q: The _____ recognizes justice, liberty and equality as basic principles of a citizen's life and seeks to promote fraternity among them.

A: nation

Q: _____ is a sovereign socialist secular democratic republic which assures the dignity of the individual and the unity and integrity of the nation.

A: India

Q: It took the Constituent _____ a little less than three years to draft this monumental document.

A: Assembly

Q: All adult citizens have the to vote without any discrimination on any grounds making universal adult franchise a hallmark of a _____ system.

A: democratic

Q: The preamble which commences with the magical words, we the people of India captures the lost East spirit of our _____.

A: constitution

Q: It envisages that the legislature will represent and enact the will of the people while an independent judiciary will serve as the conscious keeper of the _____.

A: nation

Q: The Assembly adopted the _____ of independent India on the 26th of November 1949 and it came into effect on the 26th of January 1950.

A: constitution

True or False

Q: True or False: The law is written constitution of any country on the earth.

A: True